

HERITAGE 2008

Here is some practical information that might help you when arriving to Porto.

Arriving to the Airport:

You have a choice: either pick-up a taxi and ask for “Estação de Campanha” (Campanha Railway Station) or the use the “Metro”.

This second option is affordable, quick and comfortable. The Metro station is just outside the Airport, but you must cross underground (please follow the signs). The Purple Line has a regular schedule, every hour at 20, 39 and 59 minutes. It takes circa 40 minutes to reach the central railway station Campanha.

You have 5 daily trains departing to Pocinho (the railway station near Foz Côa). Then you will have a bus or a taxi to Vila Nova de Foz Côa (circa 7 Km).

Hours of departure (Porto Campanha): 07h25; 09h20; 13h25; 15h20; 17h15

The trip from Porto to Pocinho takes circa 3.10 to 3.30 hours.

If you arrive in the morning of May the 6th, should you like to join the trip together (in a private train) please go to our web page and register.

Trip to Foz Côa: 50 EUR (private train, departing 03pm from Porto S. Bento Railway Station)

If you arrive in the afternoon of May the 6th, we organised a private Bus to Foz Côa. This Bus will departure from the Airport, circa 08pm. (50 EUR)
